Cell Park Estate, St Albans

The Grade II listed Cell Park Estate is nestled in 10 acres of formal gardens, with an additional 65 acres of parkland, 30-Miles north of London.

Built in 1539 and remodelled in 1825-26 on a sprawling 18.39 acres, the Estate has been carefully preserved and restored to a high standard, retaining its original grandeur and charm. It offers a tranquil environment and is ideal for investors or groups looking for an exclusive estate and could be used for many purposes such as a private residence, a holiday rental, a wedding venue or a corporate retreat.
